

KHCB (AM & FM) EEO PUBLIC FILE REPORT

For the period April 1, 2014-April 1, 2015

This EEO Public File Report is filed in the public inspection file of Stations KHCB(AM), League City, Texas, and KHCB-FM, Houston, Texas, pursuant to Section 73.2080(c)(6) of the Federal Communications Commission's ("FCC") rules.

During the period ending April 1, 2015 the stations filled the following full-time employment vacancies: One-Engineering tech. A full time engineer resigned to take a position with a ministry overseas so there was a need to fill that vacancy with another radio engineer. The job posting was sent to National Religious Broadcasters Job Posting website. Referrals from other radio stations and contacts with engineers we had worked with in the past helped us in finding the new hire.

The total number of people the stations interviewed for all full-time vacancies during the period covered in the report: Three

The following are the recruitment sources used during the period covered in this report and the cumulative number of interviewees referred by each: Six

Houston Christian Broadcasters, Inc. ("HCBI"), the licensee of Stations KHCB(AM), League City, Texas, and KHCB-FM, Houston, Texas is a religious broadcaster as defined by the regulations of the Federal Communications Commission. See 47 C.F.R. § 73.2080(c)(1); Review of the Commission's Broadcast and Cable Equal Employment Opportunity Rules and Policies, 17 FCC Rcd. 24018 (2002). As a religious broadcaster, HCBI has established a religious qualification for all employee positions at KHCB(AM), League City, Texas, and KHCB-FM, Houston, Texas. In accordance with the FCC's rules, HCBI makes reasonable, good faith efforts to recruit applicants, without regard to race, color, national origin or gender, among those who are qualified for employment based on their religious belief or affiliation. Although not required to do so, Houston Christian Broadcasters, Inc. instituted a summer and shorter winter internship program to train high school and college students in the various aspects of religious broadcasting. Recruitment was made from various high schools and the College of Biblical Studies, a local accredited Bible College. This included interns for Spanish programming as well as English.
