Houston Christian Broadcasters, Inc. ("HCBI"), the licensee of Stations KHCB(AM), League City, Texas, and KHCB-FM, Houston, Texas is a religious broadcaster as defined by the regulations of the Federal Communications Commission. See 47 C.F.R. § 73.2080(c)(1); Review of the Commission's Broadcast and Cable Equal Employment Opportunity Rules and Policies, 17 FCC Rcd. 24018 (2002). As a religious broadcaster, HCBI has established a religious qualification for all employee positions at KHCB(AM), League City, Texas, and KHCB-FM, Houston, Texas. In accordance with the FCC's rules, HCBI makes reasonable, good faith efforts to recruit applicants, without regard to race, color, national origin or gender, among those who are qualified for employment based on their religious belief or affiliation. Although not required to do so, Houston Christian Broadcasters, Inc. instituted a summer and shorter winter internship program to train high school and college students in the various aspects of religious broadcasting. Recruitment was made from various high schools and the College of Biblical Studies, a local accredited Bible College. This included interns for Spanish programming as well as English. Also, a robust volunteer core has been established and maintained to train people with skills to operate a radio station including the exposure to automation and production in an effort to help with the pursuit of a career in media and to establish a pool of already trained candidates.
